INTEREST MILD
IN LOCAL FIGHT.

School Directors and Constables to Be Elected Tomorrow.

SOME CONTESTS ARE WAGED

Factional Struggle Among the Democrats Over School Directorships, Second, Third and Fourth Wards Battleground for Constables.

Interest in the local campaign is only mild and is overshadowed by the county contest at the polls tomorrow. School directors, constables and election officers will be chosen throughout the town. The School Directors are to be elected at large and the constables and election officers in wards.

Indications point to the election of the entire Republican ticket for School Directors. The candidates are as follows:

Six Year Term.
J. B. DAVIDSON.
LLOYD SHAW.
Four Year Term.
C. W. HAYS.
F. E. YOUNG.
Two Year Term.
A. W. BISHOP.
W. W. SMITH.

Efforts to develop a factional fight over the School Board situation seem to have failed signally. The Democrats, it is said, are not supporting their own ticket all the way through. The Republicans are supporting their straight ticket. There is no reason to fear that the entire Republican school ticket will not carry.

Among the constables there is a warm contest in several quarters. J. W. Mitchell has practically no opposition in the First Ward. He will be elected. In the Second Ward Henry Geiger is the Republican nominee. Geiger, it is believed, will come out a winner over Raymond Rottler, who has held the office for a number of years. Rottler is also a candidate for High Constable.

In the Third Ward, Charles Wilson, who has had almost a life job as constable, is facing the hardest fight of his career. He is opposed on the Republican ticket by George Gray, who has made an effective canvass and with the help of his large following of friends expects to win. It is expected the Fourth Ward will give its usual safe Republican majority to J. W. Howard over J. B. Stonecker, his Democratic opponent.

The Republicans did not put up a candidate for Constable in the Fifth Ward against R. E. Stillwagon, who has no opposition. Across the river there is little interest being manifested. In the Sixth Ward R. A. Smith, the Republican nominee, is without opposition and Joseph O'Brien, in the Seventh, disposed of his opponent at the primary on both tickets.

Individuals are that the only Democratic Constable to be elected will be the one without opposition. Where there is a contest the Republican, in every instance, seems to have the best of it.

There is only a mild contest over the election officers. The Democrats may lose control of the election board in the Third Ward. William Dowlin is candidate for Judge of Election against Lamar Stillwagon. The Democrats have gradually been losing their grip on the "Bloody Third" but up to this time they have always managed to keep the election board on their side. Tomorrow may see them lose even this remnant of their once despotic power. If the Republicans gain the Third Ward election board it will spell the end of the Democratic power in that bailiwick. The Republicans of the ward have contended for years that with an impartial election board and a fair count there would be no question of their superior strength in the district.

The Democrats have gradually lost out in ward after ward of town until now they are fighting for life in what was formerly conceded to them long before the vote was cast. The first constables safely Republican and the second can be depended upon to support that ticket. The Fourth has been a hotly debated ground, but is now safely Republican. The fifth professes to have the largest so-called "independent" vote, but it is consistently Republican. In the Sixth and Seventh the Democrats are sadly outnumbered. At the primary they could not muster a dozen votes for their party on the entire West Side.

The county campaign practically closed Saturday evening. It was a quiet ending in keeping with the trend of politics in Fayette since the primary September 30. There were none of the scenes in the hotel lobbies or on the streets such as have been incident in the past to the closing night of county campaigns. While the Republicans are not overlooking the necessity of getting out the full strength of their party they are content that the whole county ticket will

Foreigner Steals
Wife and Daughter

On a charge of assault and battery and mayhem John Gveshee, of Dutch Bottom was taken to Uniontown this morning by Constable R. A. Smith of the West Side and committed to jail pending a hearing at court.

The prosecutor in the case was Martin Bolte, who received the defendant of running away with his wife and daughter, who were located in Pittsburgh on Saturday night.

Saturday a week ago the prosecutor and defendant quarreled at Dutch Bottom and the prosecutor alleged that Gveshee knocked him down, beat him and then his wife and daughter, who were located in Pittsburgh on Saturday night.

Anniversary for
Rev. Palmquist

In the presence of one of the largest congregations ever assembled at the First Baptist church, Rev. E. A. E. Palmquist celebrated his fifth anniversary as pastor of the church yesterday. Both services were largely attended. In connection with the morning services the regular monthly communion services were held. The services were very appropriate and were of an unusually interesting nature.

Special music was also rendered. Rev. Palmquist delivered a very able sermon on "Wood," in commemoration of his "wooden wedding" with the church. His sermon was divided into five parts a different kind of wood being taken to illustrate each part. The first wood was poplar, to show his popularity with the church during his first year; the second pine, the third rosewood, the fourth spruce; and the fifth oak. At the close of the evening services Rev. Palmquist was presented with a huge bouquet of lavender and yellow chrysanthemums. The name of the giver was not given.

Since coming to Connellville as pastor of the First Baptist church Rev. Palmquist has done excellent work. The membership has greatly increased and the church is now in a flourishing condition.

Young Men
Made Trouble

Three young men made trouble at the corner of Pittsburgh and Peach streets Saturday night. Fireman William Cooney cautioned them to be quiet but they ignored the warning. Cooney and Policemen Baxter and Storer arrested them. They gave the names of Joseph Huges, Pat Droncy, and John Foley. Huges paid his fine and the other two were sentenced. Later the parents of the two being held appealed to Surrogate Evans and secured their discharge after a stern lecture had been given.

Martin Midlin was given 72 hours for being disorderly at the "Battle-ship," where he boozed. Harry Sayers drew 18 hours for being drunk. No arrests were made last night but four sleepers sought refuge at the lockup over night.

Appointed Postmistress

Miss Hilda Cramer of Dunbar township has been appointed postmistress at a meeting No. 1, succeeding Miss Nellie Carter, whose term expires soon. Miss Cramer since the opening of the Dunbar township school term in September has taught at Monroeville.

The Conclusion of a Tame Political Campaign.
Democratic Snow Forts Melt in the Sunlight of Truth.
The $5,000 Pure Politics Fund in Danger.

The political campaign of 1911 is all over but the voting. That will be done tomorrow. It is the duty of every citizen to vote and of EVERY GOOD REPUBLICAN TO VOTE THE STRAIGHT REPUBLICAN TICKET. HOW TO DO SO WITHOUT ANY MISTAKE IS SHOWN ON THE FIFTH PAGE OF THIS PAPER.

The Republican ticket measures up to the Jeffersonian standard. Its candidates are honest, faithful and capable. Some of them were under fire during the primary, but they emerged with no injury to their characters as men or officials. Primary politics are not to be taken too seriously. The Republican party never put up a cleaner ticket, and was never more thoroughly united. The primary battle was fought out within the party, its results have been accepted gracefully and its nominees will be loyally supported by the losers. In politics it is almost a universal rule that a good loser is eventually a good winner.

The Democrats have conducted a dignified though not a very aggressive campaign. It has not lacked in generalship. Commander Gray has invented some new and startling issues, but his breastworks were all snow forts, which in the clear sunlight of truth melted away leaving him and his handful of ragged and irresolute veterans exposed to a merciless and fatal fire.

The first fort behind which the Democratic army fired their biggest guns was the charge that the Republicans of Fayette county were about to erect new public buildings at large expense, the conduct of which involved long payrolls and increased political patronage; but it was shown that THIS SUGGESTION CAME FROM DEMOCRATIC SOURCES, AND THAT UP TO THIS TIME IT HAS NOT BEEN ACTED UPON BY REPUBLICAN AUTHORITY.

Chairman Gray retreated in good order to the next snow fort, which was the assumption that the election would be on the part of the Republicans reek with corruption; that in the interest of Pure Politics; and to save the county from moral and financial ruin, it would be necessary to elect the Democratic ticket. In support of this political bluff, Chairman Gray has published, with all the prominence that printer's ink can give it, a signed pledge of certain reputable men of means, mostly Democratic in politics, pledging to contribute, in proportions not mentioned, the sum of $5,000 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any who violate the election laws tomorrow. This flamboyant proclamation is merely intended to create the impression by inference that the Republican party is wholly corrupt. This is not the case, and EVERY HONEST REPUBLICAN SHOULD RESIST IT BY GOING TO THE POLLS TOMORROW AND VOTING THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

In the meantime, EVIDENCE HAS BEEN SECURED WHICH MAY OBLIGE CHAIRMAN GRAY TO GIVE UP A PART OF THAT $5,000 FUND TO REPUBLICAN INTERESTS AS A PENALTY OF DEMOCRATIC CORRUPTION.

BOOKER WASHINGTON
LOSES HIS MEMORY.

Cannot Recall Party He Was Seeking When Ulrich Mauled Him.

NERVOUS ON WITNESS STAND

Only Remembers That He Was Given Bad Throwing by Man Now Facing Trial—Ulrich Would Not Listen to Negro's Explanation.

UNITED PRESS TELEGRAM.
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Booker T. Washington, the noted negro educator and founder of Tuskegee Institute, was possessed of a most unfortunate memory today when called today to testify against Henry A. Ulrich, the white man who beat Washington when he found him in the vestibule of his house on March 10. Dr. Washington could not even remember the name of the person he was seeking in the building.

Ulrich was placed on trial in special sessions before Judges Moss, Zeller and Ryan. He was charged with assault. Mrs. Mary Alvarez, a resident in the apartment house, testified that she told the policeman who arrested Washington "that burglar," she said—that he had been hanging around all evening. Washington, she testified, had offered to explain to Ulrich who he was, but Policeman Tierney, who arrested the negro, corroborated her in the statement that Ulrich would not listen to any explanation. Patrolman Tierney testified that Washington was sober.

Nervous and ill at ease, the negro took the stand. He said the assault took place at 9:15.

"I was in the vestibule looking at the names on the doorplate when this man came in seized me by the throat, hurled me to the floor and beat me with a cane."

"I said to him 'Don't beat me that way. If I have violated the law call a policeman.' He kept on beating me and I ran."

"When I reached Central Park West, I ran. I played out and fell. Two men then began beating me. I don't know who the other man was. He ran away when the policeman arrived."

"What were you doing in the vestibule?" asked Justice Moss.

Washington was examining the door plates.

Speaker Cox
Died Today

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

In a Runaway Accident Sunday Afternoon With His Son Clark.

BUGGY WAS TURNED OVER

When Horse Took Fright at a Calf That Ran Down on the Road Near the John Work Farm—Colonel Barnhart Hurt in Accident Near Same Place Year Ago.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Speaker John P. Cox of the General Assembly died suddenly at 10:30 today from a runaway accident.

Speaker Cox had been in poor health since the last session of the Legislature but his family thought his illness only temporary. He was 59 years old and prominent in Republican politics.

Governor Tener received the news while in this city and was greatly shocked. It is said that the officer in charge of the funeral arrangements will endeavor to elect George E. Alter the next speaker.

R. Marietta
"Set 'Em Up"

At the turkey supper given by the young ladies of the Methodist Protestant church Saturday night, Rockwell Marietta saw that those who were responsible for the delightful affair need not go hungry. After partaking of his meal, Mr. Marietta went into the kitchen and made a speech. He complimented the ladies upon the splendid supper they served. Then he contributed $25 that the workers, too, might enjoy turkey.

The outburst of applause was heard in the big dining room at the Y. M. C. A. building and it did not take long for the news of Mr. Marietta's generosity to become known.

Paresse Issues Challenge

George Paresse, the middleweight Greek wrestler of McKeesport, was in Connellville Saturday. Paresse challenges any wrestler in the coke region to a match and is not so particular about the weight. He weighs 165 pounds but is willing to give ten or 20 pounds. A arrangement for a match can be made at 125 North Pittsburgh street.

COL. J. J. BARNHART
HAS NARROW ESCAPE

In a Runaway Accident Sunday Afternoon With His Son Clark.

BUGGY WAS TURNED OVER

When Horse Took Fright at a Calf That Ran Down on the Road Near the John Work Farm—Colonel Barnhart Hurt in Accident Near Same Place Year Ago.

Colonel Barnhart, nominee on the Uniontown ticket for Poor, Director of the Poor, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday in a runaway accident. They were on their way home from the Laurel Hill church, where they had attended services, when the horse, Clark Barnhart, was driving, took fright at a calf that ran down on the road in front of the residence of John Work. The horse, which was a spirited animal, jumped to one side of the road, crashed up against the fence and upset the buggy in the ditch. The vehicle turned completely over.

Colonel Barnhart fell under it, and lay motionless for several seconds before he regained his breath. Clark Barnhart, who was driving, was badly hurt. He was lying under the buggy, which was being dragged along by the horse. When his father shouted, asking if he was hurt, Clark let go of the lines and the horse ran down the road nearly a mile to the place of Findley Woodward, where Mr. Woodward caught it.

Both Colonel Barnhart and his son were badly bruised in the accident. The Colonel is limping today and complains of a pain in his chest. Clark Barnhart is at home nursing his bruises. The top of the buggy, a new one purchased only last week, was smashed off when the rig was upset. The seat of the bed was also wrecked.

When Clark Barnhart saw that his father was not seriously hurt, he started down the road after the horse. Scott Dunn and James Parkhill came along in an automobile, picked up Colonel Barnhart and took him home. When they came along he was lying by the side of the road.

A year ago, Colonel Barnhart was hurt in a runaway accident near the same spot.

Uniontown Plays
Here on Nov. 25

At Saturday's football game at Uniontown arrangements were made for playing the annual contest between Uniontown and Connellville High Schools. Principal Cobough and Head Coach Smith met the Uniontown officials after the contest and decided to settle matters on the spot. Uniontown finally consented to toss the coin. Coach Sutter flipped the coin into the air and Coach Smith called it correct. Smith elected to play the game here. It was decided that out of town men should serve as referees and umpires. For field judge and head linesman the coin was flipped again and Connellville won that also. Smith selected Prof. Phillips to act as field judge. Prof. Rinehart of Uniontown will be the head linesman.

The game will be played on November 25. The game will be held at Uniontown and police protection is guaranteed to keep the field clear. It was decided that only bona fide students, as shown by the enrollment of November 3, would be allowed to participate in the contest.

As Washington High School defeated Uniontown 10 to 0, after losing to Connellville 15 to 7, it is believed the boys here have a good chance to win the game. From now on there will be one contest a year between the two schools, alternating as to the field of play.

Washington New Town in League

At a meeting of the Central League Directors Saturday night Washington was awarded a franchise. Because of the late date of Washington's entry into the circuit the schedule will be arranged in such a manner that the new team will not start playing until the second week of the season. There are now six string teams to make up the circuit. The teams will be paired as follows: Connellville and Uniontown, Johnstown and South Side, Charleroi and Washington.

The general public will have an opportunity to inspect the new basketball hall Wednesday evening when a game will be played between the Redskins and Yankigans of the Coker team. No admission will be charged. The game will be played not only to give the team practice, but to afford fans a chance to select the choice seats.

Harry Boggs and Leon Egolf arrived yesterday and are in fine shape. The other players are expected to report today. The sale of season tickets will open at F. R. Graham's drug store on Thursday morning. The seats for the first game will not be placed on sale until Saturday.

Pack, the new man from Connecticut, arrived in town today. He is built along the lines of Ahern, although not quite so tall. As a center man he appears promising.

Through Cars Now
to Phillips Works

Beginning this morning through cars are being run over the Juniata line to Phillips works, within five miles of Uniontown. The running time is 45 minutes. Cars on that line leave here every hour at 45 minutes after the hour. Heretofore the through car went only to Juniata, where passengers for points beyond were required to transfer.

On the disappearing division cars for Vanderbilt and Dickerson Run will leave 15 minutes after the hour and for Leasoning No. 3 Juniata and Phillips at 15 minutes before the hour.

B. & O. Laborer Hurt

Robert Humes of Philadelphia, a B. & O. laborer, lost the Cottage State hospital with a sprained ankle. While attempting to get off the work train last evening he slipped and fell.

Discharged From Hospital

Mr. W. H. Fries, who was operated on at the Cottage State Hospital, was discharged from that institution yesterday afternoon.

CHEERS FOR BERKEY
AT RUPPEL MEETING.

Enthusiasm at Somerset Was All for Republican Candidate.

COMING DOWN HOME STRETCH

Candidate Berkey is Well in Lead and Will Be Returned a Winner by Great Majority of Loyal Somerset County Republicans Tomorrow.

From a Staff Correspondent.
SOMERSET, Nov. 6.—Somerset had an old time political rally on Saturday night. There was an ingathering at the County Seat from all over the county. It was advertised as a non-partisan rally in the interest of W. H. Ruppel, Democratic candidate for Judge. About the only interest the Ruppel forces could claim in it is the fact that they paid the freight. The cheers and the enthusiasm were for John A. Berkey, Republican nominee for Judge who will be elected tomorrow.

The meeting naturally attracted a big crowd. The supporters of Berkey, however, far outnumbered the Ruppel men. Special efforts were made by the coal corporations supporting Ruppel to create enthusiasm for their candidate. The men accepted the privilege of special trains and other trimmings furnished by the Ruppel managers, but the sympathies of a large majority of the voters who came in from other sections of the county were freely expressed in behalf of John A. Berkey.

The demonstration was in charge of a few disgruntled Republicans who are putting forth every effort to defeat the Republican ticket at tomorrow's election. This sort of a Republicanism in the county of Somerset, who refuse to stand by their party nominees, have only one ambition tomorrow. They want a Democrat on the bench in Somerset county for the next ten years. It is their first step in a plan to build up an organization of which they will be the dictators. In their attempt to wreck the Republican party in Somerset county they have enlisted the support of a majority of the large coal companies. The shows of war have been freely supplied by these corporations through agents who have been busy day and night since the primary campaign. Money has been freely used and brutal coercion has been attempted. The result is a revulsion of feeling. Loyal Republicans in Somerset county tomorrow will stick by their party nominees. Men are thinking about the situation, they are thinking about their own duties and obligations as they did not think a month ago they are making up their minds that they are not going to be swept off their solid footing. A revolution has taken the place of radicalism. A new spirit is at work; the state council is build up the party instead of destroying the party; honor those who have given their strength to the party's welfare; instead of humiliating them; reward them for fidelity instead of punishing them.

There have been many hot political battles in Somerset county. The sparks flew, hard things were said, and nasty things were done, but the fact is that when the battle had been fought and when the smoke of battle had blown away, the regular, legitimate, nominated party men invariably were elected. This has been the history of Republican politics for many years in Somerset county, and when all has been said and done the indications are that history will repeat itself and the entire Republican ticket will be elected. Why should it be other wise? What gain would there be from a Republican standpoint, to defeat John A. Berkey? It would be a great loss, and that loss would mean a irreparable blunder; it would mean danger; it would mean danger of defeating the entire ticket; it would mean discouragement to the State and National organizations; and surely the good-thinking Republican voters will consider, well before endangering the success of the ticket and the perpetuity of Republican rule in Somerset county.

Every member of the Republican party will be challenged tomorrow with reference to his loyalty to the party at the time of the party's need. The manner in which that challenge is met, the answer which the Republican voter gives to the call for loyalty, and the disposition he makes of his vote in response to his party's claims—all these will determine the outcome of the election, the future status of the party in the county and will carry the message of cheer or discouragement to the voters of other counties in the future. To Republican supremacy, or to make an entering wedge for Democratic domination.

Tomorrow the Republicans of Somerset county will have, in their hands, an opportunity for the conservation or destruction of the Republican party.

Gold Dust a Necessity in Every Dairy

Nothing absorbs impurities so quickly as milk. To insure healthful milk and butter, absolute cleanliness is necessary. All milk bottles, strainers, etc., should first be rinsed with cold water to remove the new milk which would curdle in hot water. Then wash in warm water to which a tablespoon of Gold Dust washing powder has been added. Rinse and scald thoroughly with hot water, then leave in the air and sun for at least twelve hours before they are used again. Have plenty of cloths, washing these in the Gold Dust suds, same as the utensils.

Dr. E. Edie Goes East.
Dr. E. Edie left last night for Philadelphia to attend a meeting of the Clinical Congress of Surgeons of North America which convenes in that city tomorrow. The convention will be in session until November 12. Dr. H. White and Dr. W. J. Bailey will leave for Philadelphia tomorrow night to attend the convention.

Scott Helped Win.
Malcolm Scott, the former Conneltsville High School football captain, was largely responsible for Saturday's victory of West Virginia University over Washington & Jefferson. The score was 6 to 5 and Scott kicked the goal that made the one point West Virginia needed to win. Scott played a star game throughout.

Strike the head of the ticket and it is a blow at every Republican candidate. Will the farmers and workmen of Somerset county permit the coal corporations whose orders are issued from Philadelphia, New York and Pittsburg to dictate their choice of a judge? These corporations are not for John A. Berkey and they are not for politics in Somerset county this fall for the reformation it affords their agents. True Republicans love a game lower and most of the Republican leaders at the late primary are both game and loyal.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be as fresh and fair as a girl. Why isn't it so?

The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round forms where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as strictly confidential and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

JOB PRINTING OF ALL KINDS DONE AT THE COURIER OFFICE.

On Wednesday We Shall Open Two Entirely New Departments.

- 1--A Long-Needed Hair-Dressing Department Where Fastidious Women Will Receive the Attention of Experts.
- 2--A Drug Department Wherein the Residents of Fayette County May Secure Drugs ^{OF ALL SORTS} at Reasonable Prices.

Of Especial Interest to Well-Dressed Women is the Hair-Dressing Department.

This New Department Will Be in Charge of the Most Capable Attendants and Our Patrons Are Assured the Same Service as They Would Receive in the Expensive Shops of Large Cities.

Connellsville has hitherto been totally lacking in a hair-dressing establishment, and its women have been forced to go to other cities to have their hair done, or else resort to the unpleasant and unsatisfactory expedient of doing it themselves. The need for modern hair-dressing parlors has long been felt, so we have decided to install them in our store.

This decision, we believe, will be gladly welcomed by the many women who have been hitherto forced to go out of town to obtain the services of expert hair-dressers, as well as those who have not had time for journeys to the larger cities but who nevertheless have frequently wished for an up to date establishment of this character in Connellsville.

We have not spared expense in inaugurating this brand new department. Capable attendants will be always at your service and you will receive at their hands the same expert treatment that you would expect from the most costly hair-dressers of the large cities. There will be no service too hard for them to render you—no work too difficult for their deft and skilled fingers.

This new department will open its doors, fully prepared to serve you, on Wednesday. We hope to see a host of our friends here on that day, and most cordially invite your attendance and inspection.

Incidentally, it may be well to mention that our fees will be quite moderate.

WE GIVE S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS. ASK FOR THEM.

Just Such An Innovation As Our New Drug Dept. Has Long Been Needed by Connellsville.

Here You Will Be Able at All Times to Purchase Every Drug You May Desire at Reasonable Prices.

A Drug Section in a department store in a town of Connellsville's size is indeed a novelty. We believe that it will prove most successful, however, for we have long discerned a pressing need for it. On Wednesday we shall open our new Drug Department, and we trust to see you here on opening day, for dainty souvenirs have been prepared for our visitors.

In the installation of this new department, our first aim has been absolute purity of every drug. You can be sure of every drug you purchase here, and you can be equally sure of purchasing every drug here.

Next, we have aimed at completeness of stock, and our assortments encompass every demand you could possibly make upon them. While we are ready to supply you with every drug or chemical you could ask for, we do not fill prescriptions.

Our third aim has been to establish a reasonable price on every drug. Our prices are marked on a consistently narrow margin of profit. We shall sell drugs as we sell everything else in our store—not with regard to its purchasers' desire for it, but solely with an eye to its cost and intrinsic, actual value.

Wednesday, November 8, is the opening day for this new department, and we request that you come to examine and test the completeness and purity of our stocks.

Remember, Our Hair-Dressing and Drug Departments Open Wednesday. Be Here!

Be here on Wednesday and receive a dainty souvenir.

WE GIVE S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS. ASK FOR THEM.

TO PILE VICTIMS:

Treat the inward Cause if You Want a Cure.

Is piles a skin disease?
No, it is a stagnation of blood circulation—a swelling of blood vessels. Why expect a cure from applications outside? The treatment should attack the cause.

D. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID (sugar-coated tablets) is taken inwardly; it restores circulation, rid's you of piles for good.

How to Vote a Straight Republican Ticket Tomorrow.

The following is a copy of the ballot which will be used at the election tomorrow, except only that it does not contain the borough officers, consisting of School Controllers, Constables and Election Officers; but a cross mark as indicated in the first column means a vote for all the Republican candidates on county and borough tickets.

But it does not mean a vote for the Constitutional Amendments. They must be separately marked with a cross-mark opposite the word, "Yes," as indicated. The amendments relate particularly to Philadelphia and Pittsburg; they are reasonable, and there is reason to believe that they have the sanction and support of a large majority of the citizens of both cities. They should, therefore, be voted for affirmatively.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

A cross (X) marked in the square at the right of the word "YES" indicates a vote FOR the Amendment. A cross (X) marked in the square at the right of the word "NO" indicates a vote AGAINST the Amendment.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION NO. 1. Shall Section Eight of Article Nine of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:		YES	NO
Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenue in excess of the interest on said debt or debts and of the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted; Provided, That a sinking fund for their cancellation shall be established and maintained.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION NO. 2. Shall Section Six of Article Five of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:		YES	NO
Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in Philadelphia vested in five distinct and separate courts of equal and coordinate jurisdiction, composed of three judges each. The said courts in Philadelphia shall be designated, respectively, as the court of common pleas number one, number two, number three, number four, and number five, but the number of said courts may be, by law, increased, from time to time, and shall be in like manner designated by successive numbers. The number of judges in any of said courts or in any county where the establishment of an additional court may be authorized by law, may be increased, from time to time, and whenever such increase shall amount in a whole to three, such three judges shall compose a distinct and separate court as aforesaid, which shall be numbered as aforesaid. In Philadelphia all suits shall be instituted in the said courts of common pleas, without designating the number of the said court, and the several courts shall distribute and apportion the business among them in such manner as shall be provided by rules of court, and each court, to which any suit shall be thus assigned, shall have exclusive jurisdiction thereof, subject to change of venue, as shall be provided by law.		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
In the county of Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas shall be vested in one court of common pleas composed of all the judges in commission in said county. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first day of January succeeding its adoption.		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

Hopwood Girl Fights Desperate Battle With Negro Who is Nearly Lynched.

UNIONTOWN, Nov. 5.—Fighting for her honor, if not for her life, her body covered with blood and bruises and her clothing almost torn off, Miss Cartie Barnes, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Jesse Barnes of Hopwood, was found almost exhausted in a combat with a burly negro in a ravine at Wynne Crossing by her father Saturday night. When her father reached the spot Miss Barnes had been overpowered, but nevertheless was desperately and bravely making a fight that she feared would be hopeless. So savage was the negro's attack, and so intent was he in pursuit of his selfish purpose that the girl's father had to draw him away from her. More help arriving, the negro was secured and brought to the jail in Uniontown. Feeling ran high in the neighborhood of the outrage yesterday and the brute is considered lucky in having escaped with his life.

Miss Barnes is the very efficient cashier for the Union Supply Company at the Wynne store. She left the store Saturday night at 6 o'clock. She went down the path that crosses the B. & O. railroad tracks in going to the street car to reach her home. When she reached the railroad she was confronted by the negro with a Winchester in his hands. Placing the muzzle of the rifle against her shoulder he drove her under pain of death over an embankment and into a ravine where the underbrush is thick. Hesitating, yet fearing for her life, the brute had to push her with the rifle barrel. After driving her a distance, the ruffian discarded the weapon and then commenced the battle between the young white woman and the burly black that did not end until the girl's father heard her feeble cry of "Papa!" three hours later. Had Mr. Barnes not heard his daughter would have lost consciousness in a few minutes, and the fiend would have had her at his mercy.

Miss Barnes is a strong girl. She fought and scratched the ruffian, at the same time pleading with him to let her go. The negro who pleaded the more brutal became his attack. He cursed and swore that if she cried out he would kill her. Time and again she fought him off, but with the ferocity of a tiger he persisted. Getting her hand in his mouth he sank his fangs into it, and that member of his brutal mouth came into contact with her person and this time he sank his teeth into the flesh of her arm. An examination yesterday of the ravine where the bloody struggle took place revealed evidence of a desperate combat. Shreds of the girl's clothing were sticking to the briars and scattered about. All this happened about a hundred yards from Wynne, but in one of the darkest and most secluded spots the brute could have chosen for his vile purpose.

Jesse Barnes, a domestic alarm when his daughter did not get home for supper, and two searching parties were organized to look for her, after he had gone to the store and found she had straggled home at the usual time. Crying along in the dark and watching the tracks, the father at last heard faint cries from the ravine. It was his daughter's last despairing wail. With Roy Brown, who was assisting him in the search, he dashed into the ravine, and seizing the negro, turned him over to Brown while he assisted his almost fainting daughter to her feet. The face of the negro was swollen and disfigured, showing that the girl had made a remarkably plucky and successful fight. Outside of her bruises, the marks of the ruffian's teeth and a cut over the eye inflicted by the negro's rifle, the girl is unharmed, and her assailant was felled by his brutal fight. The officers did not find the Winchester. Had they been armed it is probable the brute would have been instantly sent to a higher tribunal.

When Barnes, Brown and Sharf got the negro to the crossing they held him until the arrival of the next car. One of them telephoned to the police station in Uniontown and Chief McGarity, Assistant Chief Sisco, Morgan Kendall and Constable George Thomas left on the next outward car. At Leith switch they resumed the incoming car with the party and their prisoner. Miss Barnes was also brought to town and taken to Dr. A. K. Crow's office, where her injuries were dressed before she was taken home. On the way in she wore a man's overcoat for protection. She had remarkable self control. There was a fair sized crowd on the car and ruffians against the negro were heard. The officers quelled the excitement, but not before someone had driven the negro's head through one of the windows. If it hadn't been for the pleadings of the girl it is believed the negro would have been lynched.

The girl told a pitiful story. Frequently she got away from the brute's clutches and endeavored to make her escape, only to be caught in the course of a few yards and thrown to the ground. Frequently she caught the negro by the throat and endeavored to strangle him as they rolled over the ground. It was so dark she could not see his brutal face, but as he hissed his foul curses at her she says she prayed to God that he would give her enough strength to throw him to some help came or she could force him to assault to desist. The negro could not find his rifle he had discarded and he could not grope for it, fearing she would escape. She summoned every atom of her strength to her assistance and so valiantly did she fight

Angry Cow Gores a Somerset Boy

Special to The Courier.

STOYSTOWN, Nov. 5.—Fifteen-year-old Donald Spangler, son of Frank Spangler, of near this place, narrowly escaped being disemboweled by the horns of an angry cow which had attempted to gore another cow beside her in the barnyard. Dr. J. H. Gardner of this place was summoned and sewed up a wound one and one-half inches long in the boy's abdomen.

The accident happened on the old Capt. William Maurer farm, occupied by William Stevens, about three miles south of this place. Donald Spangler was feeding the cattle in the barnyard last evening, when one of the cows, suddenly angered by the boss cow, lunged beside her, made a quick lunge with her horns. The boy was standing between the two and received the thrust. Fortunately for him, it was a twisting blow the cow delivered in twisting its head to one side.

A COSTLY FIRE.

Farmer's Wife Accidentally Burns a Nice Wad of Money.

A farmer, living near Charlotte, Mich., didn't exactly have money to burn, but nevertheless he, or rather his wife, burned it anyhow. He was one of the few people of the present day who think banks aren't safe, so he hid his money in a wad of money in his winter kitchen. His wife, having some special cooking to do, forgetting all about the hidden funds, started a roaring fire in the stove and a summer's savings went up in smoke. This landed us to point out once again that an old established, responsible bank is always the best place for your funds. The First National of Connellsville, for instance, which has been in business 45 years, is an absolutely safe depository and money placed in its Savings Department earns 4% interest, $1 opens an account.

His Geography.

Ample explanation of the many attempts to construct a universal language lies enfolded in the reply of a small boy given by Mrs. Hugh Fraser in "A Diplomat's Wife in Many Lands."

The irregular French verbs—what a terror those were to children! My own little boy when he was seven years old was asked by his teacher a question in geography.

"What separates England from France?"

"The irregular verbs," he replied, with mournful conviction.

SCHOLARS IN CHINA.

They Rule the Country Where All Foreigners Are Called Soos.

The scholars rule China today. Dressed in more moment than in any other country, yet the scholar, although poor and meanly dressed, is received with honor by the highest in the land.

"The superior man" of the classics is the equivalent of the "good man" with us. This man, his character, and his conduct are the constant theme of approbation: his virtue, his honor, his social relations, his manners in public and private, are carefully defined. His dignity is among his highest qualities and must be maintained at any cost.

In contradiction to the popular idea of dignity, however, the superior man will play battles with his enemies with his feet and fly kites, while the boys, like old men, stand solemnly by and look on. This he does as a method of instruction and to show the children how the superior man can relax when his high purpose is to entertain and educate the young.

To the Chinese the foreigner is a barbarian and a barbarian. It seems a hopeless task to teach him politeness. The Chinese wonders why the foreigner leaves his own country at all. Is it too small for him to make his living, or has he come to observe the superior people? If so he is to be commended. But, alas, what a poor he is!—National Geographic Magazine.

The Quaint Fern Dish.

No one would know that the fern dish was a home-made affair. It had all the appearance of one of those very expensive treasures from the art department. And it cost only 10 cents.

A bundle of round and flat white wire was used to make the basket. It was a simple pudding pan shape with a double edge of plaited wires. When the substantial affair was finished it was dipped into a mixture of plaster of paris thinned to the consistency of cream. White vinegar was used in place of water. Where weak places were shown after the basket was dried a second solution was added. When quite dry the basket was striped with gold paint to which a good amount of white varnish was added. This strengthened the basket and gave the desired finish. A very pretty effect is obtained with green varnish paint and gilt. Others stipple the white with flecks of silver, making something dainty and ornamental for the breakfast table. Quaint candle shades are made in the same style.

Not Long.

Binks (who ordered a pancake half an hour previously)—Er—Er—say, will that pancake be long?

Waitress—No, sir; it'll be round.

Then he waited patiently another half hour.

We never desire earnestly what we desire in reason.—La Rochefoucauld.

SPAIN'S NATIONAL ANTHEM.

"La Marcha Real" Was Composed by Frederick the Great.

Frederick the Great was the composer of the Spanish national anthem. Frederick's ambitions were varied. He performed on the flute. He desired to be thought a poet. He quoted Latin, but his quotations would have made Cicero stare and gasp. During that remarkable friendship which existed between him and Voltaire the author of the "Henriade" exclaimed with derision: "See the dirty linen I have to wash" holding up Frederick's manuscript, which had been sent him to revise. In the field the great warrior carried about his own poems in his pocket and a bottle of poison, so that he should not be taken alive. Menon's picture depicts the king with his flute, and Bach dedicated to him one of his compositions.

The story of the composition of the Spanish national anthem is full of interest. A little while after the conclusion of the Seven Years war Frederick at a court reception to the surprise of every one produced a march which he had composed. The Spanish ambassador, both a musician and courtier, asked for a copy to send to his royal master, Charles III. That monarch admired the piece, and it was often heard at the Escurial. After a time it was laid aside and almost forgotten. In 1808, during the deposition of Isabel II, Marshal Serrano instituted a competition among composers for a national anthem. Some 500 compositions were sent in, but none of them was so inspiring as Frederick's march, which had been exhumed from the archives. This was chosen and is today known as "La Marcha Real."—London Globe.

He Liked Turf.

Charles Keen in forcing a tavern companion to take mustard with his beef showed a more generous disposition than a city magnate who figures in the "Memoirs of Grandley Berkeley." Although a hearty feeder, Berkeley did not like fat and when served with turtle soup always left the grease fat on the side of his plate. This is considered by many to be the best part of the dish, and at a city dinner Berkeley attended his neighbor observed him with horror deliberately rejecting the succulent green fragments. "At length his feelings got the better of the alderman, and after demolishing his third helping of turtle he swept all the fat from my plate on to his grunting contemptuously. I see they're wasted on you."—London Chronicle.

ROLL CALL GETS A BIG MEETING.

Methodists of Scottdale Inaugurate a New System of Church Finances.

USE THE DUPLEX ENVELOPE

People in the Country Marvel at No Hunting Accidents. Thus: Far, Joseph Jennings, Formerly of Town, Dies at Pittsburgh—Other Notes.

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Nov. 6.—The Roll Call meeting at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. H. S. Piper, pastor, filled the church yesterday morning, the most of the members being present, when the carious of the Duplex envelope system of receiving the church money for the year was put in the hands of the members. The apportionments average 25 per cent more than those made last year, but a number of extra collections, that have been made in the past are merged in the year's apportionment, which will take away one of the things that break in on the year's order. The duplex envelope system, now used by the Presbyterian, the United Brethren, Baptists and Methodists of Scottdale, contemplates the giving of the money in each Sunday, instead of waiting a month or more at a time to give. Wherever the system has been used it has caused the offerings to increase materially.

The evening services were principally made up of some special exercises and a talk by Miss Corbin in favor of the Woman's Home Missionary society. The evening services were also largely attended. Rev. Mr. Piper talked before the meeting, and then in the morning, and asked them to join the Sunday school in its opening exercises in the auditorium before coming to the basement. When President Judson T. Strickler put the proposition to a vote the vote was a ringing one and unanimous. The change will be made on the last Sunday morning of this month, when special Sunday school services will be held.

A Lost Watch. Last on Saturday a lady's gold watch, engraved on case "R. E. R." Finder will please call Bell Phone, 207-R 2.

A Weather Change. An enormous circle was around the moon last night, the first of the kind reported since last autumn or winter, and a sign that the weather wise say forecasts a decided change in the weather. It was a good forecast for there was much rain today. Sunday was a lovely day and everybody possible seemed to be out doors to enjoy the beauty of the day.

Home From Braddock. Miss Myrtle Herbert, formerly a teacher in the Scottdale public schools, and now a teacher in the Braddock High School spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Herbert.

Saturday Hunting. Saturday was a great day for hunters and alleged hunters, but fortunately the day got by without any accidents. With the practice of the great majority of hunters, they have no more idea of the care of firearms, to judge by one near them, than an infant. Boys are seen packing double-barreled guns along the public roads, hammers up, ready to be discharged with the slightest provocation or none at all. Many of the hunters "don't see" the private property signs that are posted up everywhere, but expect to be able to see a rabbit or other game. It is no wonder that so many of them mistake men for deer, rabbits, and any old kind of game that happens to be in season. Scottdale has this far escaped any hunting "accident" but there is plenty of material to furnish one.

Josephine Jennings Dead. William Butler and W. W. Elcher, of the Royal Arcanum were in Pittsburgh yesterday identifying the body of Joseph Jennings for the lodge and attending his funeral. Mr. Jennings was a former well known resident of Scottdale, living on Broadway, and with his wife resided with their daughter, Mrs. Rose Murphy. Mr. Jennings was aged 71 years, and died on Thursday. He had taken a walk of four miles, being a great walker, came home, and was sitting in his large chair that evening, when he suddenly gave a gasp and expired. The deceased is survived by his wife and four daughters and two sons.

Election Day. There is but trifling interest in the local election contest tomorrow, the interest centering on the county ticket. Berkeley H. Boyd, the home candidate for County Treasurer on the Republican ticket, has a walk away here, as will Ben Steele, the Republican candidate for Sheriff, against those two the Democrats are making their hardest fight. J. Q. Truax is the Democratic candidate for sheriff, and James Cramer for treasurer.

Chased Thieves. Twenty-eight men followed in a mad chase after Wm. Harris' bloodhounds brought here last night to trail thieves who stole prize chickens from Wm. Glendonning and John Brennan at Everton early Sunday morning. The dogs got here at 3:30 and took the trail at once and made a long run over past Dotwiler's Mill and over into the ridge where they stopped at a farm house. The party had no search warrant with them and the dog power had given out. The party raised a collection and got a farmer to bring them back to Scottdale.

THIS IS IMPORTANT. Graham & Co., of Connellsville, and S. A. Lowe & Co., of Scottdale, Desire to Announce That They Are the Agent for Thompson's Barossa, the Money-Back Kidney and Liver Cure.

There are hundreds of people, young and old, right here in Connellsville and also in Scottdale who are taking medicines for various ailments, who do not even suspect that the kidneys are to blame. These sufferers do not know that in all probability their kidneys are all clogged up, are inflamed, or congested, and are unable to properly filter the impurities from the blood. It is the kidneys that keep the blood pure, and if the kidneys are not in good condition, disease of other organs of the body will surely develop. Thompson's Barossa will cure any disease of the kidneys, or Graham & Co., and S. A. Lowe & Co., will give you your money back.

If you are in ill health now, and are not absolutely certain of the cause, get a 50-cent bottle of Thompson's Barossa at Graham's or Lowe's today. It will make you feel better in a day. It will tone-up your kidneys, liver and bladder in a week.

It is the best investment you can make. It is worthy of a trial on our guaranteed plan. Ask for Thompson's Barossa. The dollar bottle contains more than twice as much as the fifty-cent size.

Your Bank. EVERY person who receives, and pays out money, whether in large or small amounts, should have a bank. All money received should be deposited and all payments should be made by drawing personal checks. The advantages of making payments by check are well known. The Most Severe Cold and Grippe Misery Will Be Relieved in Just a Few Hours.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Fape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

You distinctly feel the cold breaking, and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving after the very first dose. It promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Fape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery so promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Fape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Not An Expensive Place to Trade WRIGHT-METZLER CO.

IT IS PART OF A WOMAN'S NATURE to fashion useful things with her needle. Come see how thoroughly we have selected—

Art, cretonnes, satines, Ottoman weaves, DeLinas, silklines, Repp, striped patterns and floral effects, conventional lines and Oriental designs—in every color. You'll think of bags to hold slippers and linens, traveling requisites and fancy work, and a thousand other things you'd never have thought of before the time to give them all away.

Dress Goods IN A SALE

Prices, Wednesday Morning, That No Woman with Fall Sewing Yet to Do Can Afford to Miss.

200 Pieces of desirable, seasonable Dress Goods in the disposal.

If you are a person who don't know us very well we fully believe that, if you will attend this sale of Dress Goods, confidence in our newspaper publicity will be well established. We think there are more people who know our dress goods reputation than there are people who don't. Your neighbor may tell you that the newest, the smoothest, the faddish, as well as the staple sorts are here; the most dependable kinds for color and thread durability—the wanted colors and the standard weights, and—very often kinds not to be had elsewhere are here. That's the sort of goods in these four groups with sale prices that will sell them. It's your opportunity to buy good fabrics and not pay as much as usual.

50c Yard 36-Inch Hamilton Serge that sells for more than 50c ordinarily. All wool, storm weight. Black, white, grey, tan, brown, shades of blue, red. Also fancy cotton and wool mixed fabrics in plaids, hair line stripes, fancy worsteds and Shepherd checks. All colors are represented in combination. No limit to quantity.

79c Yard Newest striped worsted suitings, 42 inches and 45 inches wide. The prices that prevailed were $1.00 and $1.25 a yard. Weights for one-piece dresses or jacket suits and coats. The color combinations: Red, grey or brown with black stripes, brown with green; black with white, blue with black and rose with white. Big saving on this lot.

25c Yard This group consists of the accumulated short ends and includes practically everything that sold fast. Goods to the value of 75c yard is plentiful; there are values to $1.50 yard that will go quickly. Lengths for skirts, jackets, boys' overcoats, pants, even suits; girls dresses and blouses may be made from choice fabrics if you are prompt.

$1 Yard This last group contains the season's most favored fabrics to the value of $1.50 a yard. Plain shades of brown, navy, black, red, etc., in beautiful goods, and fancy weaves embracing those colors and others. Light weight all wool dress goods for house or street dresses, suits, long coats, etc. No restriction as to quantity.
